

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. One sided programs, like "Stolen Honor," do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy. It is also a bias that gives opinion and a choice to pursue partisanship rather than the broadcaster's duty to the public. It is obvious that they are doing this at this time to back a candidate.

It is my sincere wish that the FCC will step in and stop this. Thank you.
